

Deploy a new server with snapshot

1. At first, you need to login microhost account.
2. Click on “Deploy a new cloud server”. First option is to select location, You need to select the same location at which your snapshot server is created.

Please note that both server must be at the same location.

3. After selecting the size of server click on “deploy Cloud server”.

4. Server will be created and login details will be sent to your email id.